Dear Parent/Carer

This week has reflected the breadth of leadership opportunities available to pupils across the school and our Leadership Legacy Project Conference provided an opportunity to recognize and celebrate the initiative, commitment and positive contribution of students who have will make a lasting impact within both the school and wider community. We were supported by Emmanuel Oyinbo-Coker, Para-Athlete, through our long running partnership and collaboration with the Mintridge Foundation.

The Scholastic Book Fair continues for a further week and has been well received by pupils, encouraging reading for pleasure and sparking interest in a wide range of books. We were also pleased to welcome Year 12 families to the Parents' Information and Meet the Tutor Evening – thank you to so many parents who attended. We are so pleased that we have the year 9 residential taking place next week and there is a real sense of anticipation amongst students as they prepare for their residential. We are hoping that this will be an experience that will undoubtedly create lasting memories and support their growth both in and beyond the classroom.

Ms. Anna Hewes
Head Teacher
